

Principles of the Health & Safety Leadership Charter

By signing the Health & Safety Leadership Charter, leaders commit their support to the following:

- To subscribe to the principle that nothing is more important than the health, safety and well-being of employees, contractors, clients, customers, visitors and, if and whenever possible, the surrounding community.
- To integrate health and safety into business strategies, processes and performance measures, and to recognize that good health and safety performance supports good business results.
- To effectively manage health and safety risks by eliminating, minimizing or controlling hazards.
- To strive for continuous health and safety improvement and to provide the leadership and internal capacity to make this happen.
- To provide an environment that enables all employees to participate and work collaboratively in developing, promoting, and improving health and safety at work.
- To extend health and safety efforts, if and whenever possible, beyond the workplace, recognizing and supporting related initiatives within the community.
- To participate within a health and safety leadership learning community, by providing and receiving information and best practices, with the goal of continuously improving health and safety strategies, programming and performance.
